

Fact Sheet

JEWISH EDUCATION

The Need:

Accessible and affordable Jewish education is a critical component for building and strengthening a Jewish community.

$2,000,000+

was invested by The Jewish Federation in our community's Jewish education system.

© Jewish Historical Society of Greater Washington

500+ students participated in unique field trips that explored the rich history of Greater Washington's Jewish community.

800+ adults participate in the yearly Routes program which offers 70 unique sessions during the community wide day of Jewish learning.

32 area congregational schools received an Initiative in Congregational Education grant to provide grassroots support to their religious schools, and serve as a catalyst in transforming education programs.

2,783 children in our community attended one of six Federation-supported Jewish day schools that provided educational excellence and gave children a substantive Jewish identity built on a strong foundation of Jewish learning and values.

