Federation and the Greater Washington Jewish community are making great strides towards securing our Jewish future.

DEAR FRIENDS,

Shaping the lives of young adults, supporting those in crisis around the world, strengthening the Jewish identities of teens and ensuring that Holocaust survivors in Greater Washington continue to live independently and with dignity—the work of The Jewish Federation of Greater Washington and our partners transcends age, gender, geography and levels of religious observance. At our core, we are committed to building community and raising the funds needed to support the critical programs and services relied upon by thousands in Greater Washington, in Israel and in more than 70 countries around the world.

As we strive to meet the needs of our community locally and globally, Federation touches, changes and saves lives. In this 2015-16 Community Report, we spotlight the programs and initiatives that are crucial to our work, with snapshots of the year's most impactful and exciting achievements. Read on to discover the newest and most innovative Federation offerings and to learn more about the ways in which we are using our vision—and your support—to help build a stronger Jewish future.

Today, Federation is enhancing more lives than ever before, with the introduction of initiatives like Imagine Israel, the j.family ambassador program and Honeymoon Israel. We are taking successful programs to new heights, such as PJ Our Way®, an expansion of the successful PJ Library® program. And we remain steadfastly dedicated to promoting an inclusive Greater Washington Jewish community that is welcoming and accessible to all.

Whether these pages are your first introduction to our work or you have been a dedicated supporter for decades, we hope that this report inspires you to further engage with your Jewish community through Federation—to feel the power and inspiration of communal action. We are grateful to the many who have heeded our call to MAKE FEDERATION YOURS.

Thank you for making all of this possible.

Sincerely,

{ Robert Zahler }
PRESIDENT

{ Steven A. Rakitt }
CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Our Impact

TOUCHING, CHANGING & SAVING LIVES EVERY DAY.

At Federation, we identify, evaluate and address the critical needs of our local and global Jewish community with unparalleled commitment, passion and sensitivity. Ensuring that these needs are met to create a stronger, more vibrant Jewish community and to foster and strengthen our connection with Jews in Israel and around the world is a responsibility we take seriously.

6,600+

children are enrolled in Greater Washington Jewish preschools, full day centers and day schools.

$2,000,000+

invested in our community's Jewish education system.

500+

students participated in unique field trips that explored the rich history of Greater Washington's Jewish community.

80

high school students are graduates of the elite Israel Engagement Fellowship for teens and have become confident Israel advocates prepared for college campuses.

Education

10,540

Jewish campers attend Jewish camps locally and across the former Soviet Union.

19,000

Jewish college students on 11 campuses throughout Greater Washington are engaged in robust programs and activities that connect them to Jewish life.

Jewish Identity

9,000+

community members connect to the local Jewish community through Federation's Jewish Food Experience®.

370

Holocaust survivors in Greater Washington receive monthly food stipends, financial assistance, in-home personal care and more to continue living with dignity and independence.

Vulnerable Populations

Israel & Overseas

6,900+

people living in Ukraine's conflict zone have received life-sustaining services, including rental subsidies, food, clothing and post-trauma counseling.

700,000

chronically jobless Israelis have received employment assistance and training to enter the workforce.

6,000 children in the former Soviet Union attend 17 Jewish high schools.

400

people attend weekly Shabbat dinners in Cuba.

$1,000,000+

in emergency funding supported the Athens, Greece Jewish community through economic instability.

100%

106

adults with disabilities live in 23 group homes throughout MD, DC and VA.

26,000+

interfaith families connect with Jewish life in Greater Washington through outreach, programming and travel opportunities.

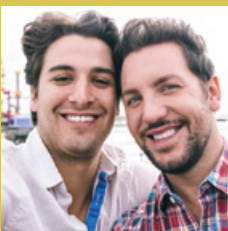

Our Impact

The Jewish Federation is pleased to showcase our proudest projects, initiatives and accomplishments of 2015-16. The following highlights vary by audience, location and focus but share one common goal: addressing our community's critical needs by making a significant impact locally, in Israel and around the world.

Inclusion

Federation welcomes the participation of interfaith couples and families, and people of all abilities, backgrounds, gender identities and sexual orientations. We are committed to advancing inclusion and strengthening our community, connecting individuals and families to the programs, services and tools required to raise awareness and advocate for the rights of all community members.

- Federation's website, shalomdc.org, is now fully accessible to those with hearing or visual disabilities, following significant accessibility updates.
- Federation welcomed KC, a 21-year-old with disabilities, as our intern this year. KC joined us through Jewish Foundation for Group Homes' Sally and Robert Goldberg MOST™ program, which helps individuals with disabilities transition from school into adult life.
- Federation supports multiple access points for the LGBTQ community into Jewish life, thanks to our partnership with the Edlavitch DCJCC Kurlander Program for GLBTQ Outreach & Engagement (GLOE).
- Since July 2015, more than 160 Jewish professionals have participated in professional development sessions on interfaith inclusion, facilitated by Federation partner InterfaithFamily/DC.

Our Impact { LEARNING }

Early Childhood Education Professional Development

“ THANK YOU TO FEDERATION for giving me the opportunity all these years to be nurtured in my teaching through courses, educational trips and monthly meetings of teachers. ”

—Marsha P., Teacher/Mentor, Gran HaYeled at Adas Israel

Across Greater Washington, 3,755 children benefit from our nationally-renowned Jewish preschools and full day centers. Federation provides ongoing training and professional development to our local early childhood Jewish educators, ensuring that the children they nurture are able to build their Jewish identities on a strong foundation of Jewish learning and values.

PJ Our Way®

PJ Our Way (PJOW) is the newest chapter of the popular PJ Library® program, offering free chapter books, exciting events and interactions with their peers for children ages 9-11. PJOW capitalizes on the independence, creativity and maturity of tweens by offering them Jewish content in an engaging way.

“ BY SIGNING UP YOUR CHILDREN FOR PJ OUR WAY, you’re giving them stories with values that will help shape their understanding of what it means to be Jewish. ”

—Catriella Freedman, National Director, PJ Our Way

Our Impact

{ FEDERATION'S UNITED JEWISH ENDOWMENT FUND }

With more than $192 million in assets under management, Federation's United Jewish Endowment Fund (UJEF) Trustees proudly approved distributions totaling $2.6 million to empower local and global partner organizations as they support innovative programs, like those listed here, and meet community needs in Washington and Israel.

Honeymoon Israel

Honeymoon Israel (HMI), in partnership with Federation, Sixth & I Historic Synagogue and InterfaithFamily/DC, provides immersive trips to Israel for locally-based cohorts of couples that have at least one Jewish partner. HMI creates communities of couples, early in their committed relationships, who are building families with meaningful connections to Jewish life and the Jewish people. By the end of 2017, more than 100 metro Washington, DC couples will have participated on a HMI trip.

“ FOR PEOPLE WHO HAVE STRUGGLED TO FIND COMMUNITY IN OUR PARENTS' SYNAGOGUES, it was refreshing to be part of a program that develops Jewish community reflective of our generation.

Honeymoon Israel has given us the unique opportunity to forge bonds with other couples looking to create a space to grow as Jews in Washington in our own way. **”

—Ruth R.

Next Gen Philanthropy Program

“ THROUGH THE NEXT GEN PHILANTHROPY PROGRAM,

I've found a network of peers with shared values who will continue to inspire and challenge me throughout my lifelong philanthropic journey. I'm thankful to Federation for bringing us together. **”

—Kevin B., Federation's Next Gen Philanthropy Program Co-Chair and participant

Federation's Next Gen Philanthropy Program empowers next-generation funders to become effective Jewish philanthropists, embrace their family legacies, establish personal philanthropic identities and understand the richness of Jewish organizational life, through trainings, workshops and networking with peers.

Food Co-op Initiative

In partnership with Federation's UJEF, The Jewish Agency for Israel's Food Co-ops offer affordable, healthy food and household items to Israel's geographic and social periphery in disadvantaged areas. The Food Co-ops promote social cohesion by serving as hubs for communal activity, provide opportunities for community members to interact in meaningful ways and help increase a sense of belonging among residents.

- The first co-op in Sderot served more than 1,000 customers in its first month.
- Five co-ops are currently serving both Jewish and Druze communities. The Jewish Agency intends to open nine more by the end of 2017 and a total of 40 stores around the country by the end of 2020.

Young Communities Initiative

Just as the pioneers who founded the State of Israel worked to create a model society, the residents of Young Communities are looking to create a better Israel. These passionate Israelis implement projects that create a strong sense of community and improve the quality of life for themselves, their families and their neighbors.

- Federation's UJEF, in partnership with the Shahaf and Gandyr Foundations and the American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee, is working to support and grow more than 200 Young Communities across Israel.
- Each Young Community has a theme, from improving education to coexistence with other populations in Israel and more. All provide programming, festivals and initiatives to improve life for thousands of residents living in the periphery of Israel.

Our Impact

{ TEEN ENGAGEMENT }

Federation empowers teens as leaders and provides multiple avenues for them to connect with their Jewish identities and peers through meaningful initiatives, including:

THIS YEAR HAS BEEN AN UNBELIEVABLE

EXPERIENCE. I was blown away by the amount of love and dedication everyone puts into their work to make our Jewish community the best. My future will be brighter because of what I learned at Federation.

—Alexa Herman, Teen Engagement Fellow

JTEEN PHILANTHROPY: A giving circle for teens, in which participants allocate up to $10,000 to local, national and international organizations, while learning about philanthropy, tikkun olam (repairing the world) and collaboration.

ISRAEL QUEST: Encourages teens to travel to Israel with peer groups during high school and to build personal connections with Israel. Israel Quest offers information about Israel travel, as well as scholarship money to help teens experience these life-changing journeys.

THE MARGO & YORAM COHEN FAMILY

Israel Engagement Fellowship (IEF)

IEF* empowers teens to develop an understanding of the history of Israel, the modern political situation and how to apply these lessons in our community and on their future college campuses.

- 96% of Fellows said they would definitely recommend the Fellowship to their friends.
- 100% of parents reported that, at the conclusion of the Fellowship, their teens had a stronger connection to Israel.

IEF CHALLENGED ME TO THINK DIFFERENTLY — to find ways to build on the strengths of my Jewish education and all that I have learned from my teachers, rabbis and parents. IEF opened my eyes to a new world in which I understand the power I have as a student to advocate for Israel, guide the conversation with respect and inspire others to join me.

—Jessie B., Israel Engagement Fellowship graduate

*IEF is presented by Federation and the Jewish Community Relations Council of Greater Washington

ConnectGens Fellowship

Through the ConnectGens Fellowship,* 11 of our community's best and brightest social innovators received six months of training, tools and connections to transform their big ideas into ventures that will mobilize our Jewish community. These graduates join a network of 176 fellows working on 155 ventures around the globe.

“ OUR JEWISH FUTURE DEPENDS ON THE CREATIVE ENERGY OF THE SURROUNDING COMMUNITY—and the ConnectGens Fellowship is our opportunity to truly make a difference. Together with The Jewish Federation, we can redefine what is possible—developing innovative strategies to better serve our unique, complex and diverse Jewish community.

—Rabbi Steven Rein, Agudas Achim Congregation

The ConnectGens Fellowship is presented in partnership between Federation and Agudas Achim Congregation, and powered by PresenTense.*

Imagine Israel

With the Imagine Israel initiative, Federation fulfills its long-standing commitment to connect Washingtonians to Israel and Israelis through the lens of social change. A wide variety of social impact programs foster meaningful relationships with the country and its people—programs that make real, sustained impact locally and in Israel.

PODCAST SERIES: Israeli theater artist Robbie Gringras facilitates thought-provoking dialogues with interesting Israelis focused on the intersection of their lives, work, passions and Israeli society.

MEET THE CHANGEMAKERS: Federation brings Israeli thought leaders to Washington to present their ideas on solving some of the most pressing social, economic and technological challenges facing Israel.

CONGREGATIONAL SHLICHIM PROGRAM: Expanding on our community's successful Israeli emissary experience through a program of The Jewish Agency for Israel, nine additional shlichim join local synagogues and schools to transform the relationships and enhance the personal connections of congregants and students with Israel and Israelis.

Federation { MISSIONS }

Federation's missions make it possible to travel through Israel and around the world with multiple generations of our community, building lifelong friendships while experiencing unique, hands-on and dynamic itineraries. Mission participants return with an enhanced connection to the countries and cities they've explored and a renewed commitment to the Greater Washington Jewish community.

Next Gen Philanthropy Program Mission to Cuba

“ ON OUR MISSION, SOMEONE SPOKE ABOUT HOW MASA ISRAEL SHAPED HER LIFE, her Jewish identity and who she is today. It sent chills down my spine being able to see first-hand that this one program had made such a momentous impact on this participant's life and her connection to Judaism. It is extraordinary to think how far Federation's support can go.

Camp Szarvas

“ SZARVAS WAS THE PLACE WHERE I EMBRACED MYSELF AND MY LOVE FOR JUDAISM.

It was a space where no one questioned who we were, and it allowed us to create a space where we could explore ourselves. I felt like a different person at camp. There wasn't just one moment at Szarvas that was magical; it was a buildup of shared moments and experiences that led to an amazing and transformative time overall. ”

—Avital K., Szarvas North American Fellow
from Greater Washington

Each summer, 1,500 Jewish campers from more than 20 countries and more than 70 Szarvas Fellows from North America attend Camp Szarvas in Hungary, which is co-sponsored by Federation partner, the American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee. For many international campers from locations with small or even nonexistent Jewish communities, summer at Szarvas is the only time they can fully express their Jewish identities.

Budapest Intergenerational Program

The lives of Hungarians young and old are transformed through their participation in the Budapest Intergenerational Program. Young Hungarian alumni of Birthright Israel are connected with Holocaust survivors who have never visited Israel, for a year-long exchange and a joint trip to Israel.

- Joint meetings during the year offer an important educational experience for the young adults to strengthen their Jewish identities, encourage active participation in Jewish life and take an ongoing role in informal education about the Holocaust.
- For the elderly participants, the program is a forum to share their first-hand accounts of Jewish life before, during and after World War II with the next generation of Hungarian Jews, and an opportunity to realize a lifelong dream of seeing Israel together with the generation that can build the Jewish future.

{ FAMILIES }

j.family ambassadors

“ I WAS TOUCHED BY MY VISIT WITH THE J.FAMILY AMBASSADOR.

She made me feel so welcomed and appreciated. She had great ideas for how I can meet other moms and get involved. My son and I can't wait to attend our first playgroup.

— j.family ambassadors participant ”

Families with young children living in Northern Virginia can now easily connect to each other and to their Jewish community through the j.family ambassadors initiative*. This program aims to create micro communities of Jewish families, bridging the gap between those already connected and those less affiliated with Jewish life.

 j.family ambassadors is presented by the Jewish Community Center of Northern Virginia.*

InterfaithFamily/DC

InterfaithFamily is the premier resource supporting interfaith couples exploring Jewish life and inclusive Jewish communities. In Greater Washington, the InterfaithFamily/DC Director meets with couples and families to offer personal guidance, connections to Jewish organizations and programs as well as resources and trainings for organizations, clergy and other program providers.

- Rabbi Sarah Tasman, Director of InterfaithFamily/DC, has had more than 100 personal interactions with individuals, couples and families to help them navigate interfaith issues, explore Judaism and connect to Jewish resources in just the first year.
- IFF/DC has built dynamic partnerships with 60 congregations and organizations, including our 3 local JCCs, PJ Library, Federation's Jewish Food Experience®, Jews United for Justice, Honeymoon Israel and more.

{ Thank You }

The Jewish Federation of Greater Washington is grateful to our dedicated volunteers, committed leaders, generous donors, corporate sponsors, community partners and professional team, who touch, change and save lives every day.

Your generosity helps us provide dynamic, creative and supportive programs and services that improve the lives of so many. Together, we care for those in need, build a stronger, more vibrant Jewish community and ensure our connection to the people of Israel and Jews around the world.

On behalf of our agencies and our community, thank you for making Federation yours and making your impact.
