Organizational Vision, Mission, and Function
The Jewish Federation of Greater Washington envisions an open, connected, and vibrant Jewish community that cares for each other, fosters Jewish learning and journeys, embraces Jewish peoplehood and Israel, and acts as a force for good in the world. As a mission-driven non-profit organization, we work to inspire, build, and sustain vibrant Jewish life in a changing world by mobilizing our community in common purpose, intentional innovation, and effective action. Position Overview:
A recent landmark community study revealed that Northern Virginia is home to more than 120,000 Jews and is growing at a rapid rate. The Northern Virginia Jewish community includes more than two dozen congregations, including two that are more than 100 years old, as well as several Moishe Houses and other organizations in an area of more than 600 square miles. As the NOVA Relationship Manager, you will inspire, shape, and energetically and strategically connect those Jews with one another and with JFGW, enhancing JFGW’s presence and impact in Northern Virginia through partnership with community members, local and national agencies, donors, congregational Rabbi’s and key communal leadership. This is a unique leadership opportunity for a dynamic professional, who knows and loves the Jewish Community, to grow and help shape the future of Jewish communal life in one of the youngest and fastest growing Jewish communities in America.

Primary Responsibilities:
Work directly with Federation’s Chief Impact Officer and the Director of Innovation to devise an effective, long-term strategy to both strengthen Northern Virginia’s existing community and institutions and grow the community through innovation and relational engagement.

- Build expertise as it pertains to Northern Virginia’s Jewish communal goals, trends, opportunities, challenges, and risks.
- Represent Federation with the local agencies and community organizations.
- Identify and create relationships with current and potential lay leaders through one-on-one informal meetings, parlor meetings, and innovative relational practices.
• In conjunction with the Director of Innovation, serve as the lead staff support for the Northern Virginia Task Force, a group of lay leaders that makes funding recommendations on innovative programmatic proposals from community organizations. Serve as one of the primary points of contacts for the Task Force chairs.

• Work with local organizations to identify, plan and develop opportunities for programmatic engagement in Northern Virginia, including, but not limited to, leadership development and Jewish learning programs.

• Collaborate cross-functionally (within JFGW) with Leadership Development and Fundraising teams to build pipelines for potential leaders and donors in Northern Virginia.

• Collaborate with the Marketing team to develop a regular cadence of tailored communications to the NoVA Jewish community.

About You:

• Positive, can-do, go getter attitude

• Minimum of 3 - 5 years of experience customer service, relationship management, fundraising/donor cultivation, community/political organizing, or engagement

• Strong, demonstrated interpersonal skills that enable relationship and partnership building with community organizations, lay leaders, and professionals at all levels

• Demonstrated critical thinking and problem-solving skills

• Excellent communication skills, both verbal and written

• Ability to work independently, perform well under pressure, juggle multiple tasks and exhibit sound judgment

• Data-Driven decision-maker who is comfortable with analytics and data management

• Proficiency in Microsoft Office; comfortable with and open to new technology

• Connection to/involvement in the Northern Virginia Jewish community preferred

Please note that JFGW is presently teleworking and will continue to do so during Covid-19 concerns. We look forward to a time when we can once again meet with our constituents out in the community. At that time, this position will be based from a home office, with an expectation to meet with community agency representatives, community members, and colleagues.
