More Information about the Perpetual Annual Campaign Endowment (PACE) (continued)

You may create a PACE fund through a variety of vehicles during your life or in your estate. Among the ways to establish a PACE fund are:

- Gift of cash or other assets
- Bequest or trust distribution
- Gift of life insurance
- Gift of IRA or pension plans
- Charitable life income plan such as a charitable gift annuity or charitable remainder trust

To estimate the amount you need to fully endow your campaign gift, multiply your current annual gift by twenty. Alternatively, you may endow a portion of your gift by establishing a PACE fund with a lesser amount, perhaps building up the fund through subsequent contributions. The minimum contribution for a PACE fund is $10,000.

Updated December 2023

The Jewish Community Foundation partners with and inspires philanthropists and the Greater Washington community to advance a thriving, equitable world where all people can reach their full potential.

Combining Jewish values with personalized service, we inspire generosity, support philanthropists in maximizing their impact, and build and participate in learning and funding communities to make systemic, lasting change for generations to come — within and beyond the Jewish community.

TURN TO THE JEWISH COMMUNITY FOUNDATION FOR:

- Support with giving to your favorite causes within and beyond the Jewish community
- Building a permanent legacy to support the work of Federation's family of agencies and the Greater Washington community
- Access to philanthropic and intergenerational learning programs ground in Jewish values and teachings
- Collaborative giving opportunities to amplify your impact
- Personal, impact-focused philanthropy advisory services
- Tax-advantaged gift options

The Jewish Community Foundation and The Jewish Federation of Greater Washington do not provide legal, financial, or tax advice. Donors are encouraged to seek independent tax and legal counsel.
