Thank You

“ Make Measurable Impact with Immeasurable Heart. ”

DEAR FRIENDS

At The Jewish Federation of Greater Washington, this is more than a slogan. It's a reflection of Federation's enormous impact, made possible by the generous support of thousands of community members like you.

This year's Report to the Community features statistics highlighting our impact and more importantly, the stories behind those statistics: people served, lives touched, changed and saved. These are more than just impressive numbers; they are the measured impact of the work enabled by Federation and our partners, locally, in Israel and around the world.

This year, we were pleased to see the myriad ways in which you heeded our call to MAKE IT YOURS. Our pathways for involvement have spoken to learners, explorers and volunteers alike. As we work together to address the needs in our local and global Jewish community, we are grateful that you have chosen to live your passion, voice your hunger for change and share your support with Federation.

Read on to learn more about the events, travel opportunities and other programming through which we have connected this year with children, teens, young adults and the elderly in Greater Washington, in Israel and around the world—and discover new ways you can get involved. Whether it's participating in a transformative Birthright Israel trip, attending a delicious Jewish Food Experience event or giving back to the community on Good Deeds Day, there are countless ways to MAKE IT YOURS.

And if you're in the neighborhood, be sure to visit Federation's new home at 6101 Executive Boulevard in North Bethesda, MD to enjoy a sweet treat and cup of coffee at Café Sunflower & Bakery. An extension of Sunflower Bakery, Café Sunflower's mission is to expand the range of workforce training and employment for young adults with developmental or other cognitive disabilities by providing opportunities in customer service, business operations and marketing. Café employees and customers benefit from the integration and inclusivity that the environment provides, and we're thrilled to have them located in our lobby. We look forward to seeing you there!

Sincerely,

Robert Zahler
PRESIDENT

Steven A. Rakitt
CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

The six areas identified here focus on critical needs in our local and global Jewish community.

At Federation, we identify, evaluate and address these priorities with unparalleled commitment, passion and sensitivity. We take seriously our responsibility to ensure that needs are met to create a stronger, more vibrant Jewish community and to foster and strengthen our connection with Jews in Israel and around the world.

Jewish Identity

Increasing opportunities for meaningful connections to Jewish life to offer members of our community a multitude of ways to embark on their Jewish journey.

Inclusive Community

Building a welcoming and inclusive community for all by growing the ways in which individuals are invited and encouraged to participate in Jewish life.

Vulnerable Populations

Expanding services to the most vulnerable among us to meet the growing needs of at-risk populations locally, in Israel and around the world.

Emergency Response

Responding swiftly to address the immediate needs of individuals and communities in crisis by delivering support, respite and relief.

The Needs

Jewish Education

Providing accessible and affordable Jewish education to build and strengthen the Jewish community.

Israel & Overseas

Offering unwavering support for and education about Israel and 70 other Jewish communities around the world.

Our Impact

VULNERABLE POPULATIONS

The Need:

Expanding services to the most vulnerable among us to meet the growing needs of at-risk populations locally, in Israel and around the world.

Yoni R. NETANYA CENTER FOR YOUNG ADULTS

“ I am a DJ with amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (ALS), and I work with computerized technology that uses the movement of my pupils to control the music. I provided the music when 3,000 people gathered in Netanya, Israel for a street party hosted by Hagag, my local chapter of American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee's (JDC) Center for Young Adults. DJing for the crowd connected me with my peers, raised ALS awareness and broke through barriers and stereotypes associated with my disability. ” trips on the Elder Buses took seniors to doctor appointments, grocery stores and other destinations, enabling independent living by our community's aging population.

46,776

The Stevens Family HOSPICE

“ I miss Jim every day and after so many wonderful years together, I often struggle with how to move forward on my own. But I’m comforted by knowing that thanks in large part to support from Jewish Social Service Agency Hospice, the few short months we had together at the end were spent focused on us and on living, not dying. ” teens, parents and educators participated in workshops and conversations to prevent dating abuse and build a strong foundation for healthy relationships.

5,000

370

Holocaust survivors received monthly food stipends, financial assistance, in-home personal care assistance and service coordination.

5,000

mental health evaluations provided to children, teens and families enhanced individuals’ abilities to cope with life’s challenges.

Our Impact

ISRAEL & OVERSEAS

The Need:

Offering unwavering support for and education about Israel and 70 other Jewish communities around the world.

Eran S.

FUND FOR THE VICTIMS OF TERROR

“The summer camp I direct serves children who have personally suffered due to terror. On our first day this year, I drove Shira, a new camper whose father was killed during Operation Pillar of Defense, to camp. Shira cried on the way, worried she wouldn't know anyone at camp, but I assured her she'd have a great time. Sure enough, she quickly became the camp darling. As her counselor confirmed, with Shira giggling nearby, 'at this camp she has 300 mothers.'” promising students from disadvantaged communities in Israel participated in enrichment programs.

23,500

6,000 children from the former Soviet Union attended 17 Jewish high schools that provide access to a strong Jewish education coupled with a secular education.

400

people attended weekly community Shabbat dinners in Cuba.

700,000

chronically jobless Israelis received employment assistance and training, giving them the tools and confidence to enter into the workforce.

Raissa L.
UKRAINE

“ When our home in Donetsk was hit by a mortar shell during fighting between the government and separatist forces last year, I was rendered temporarily deaf and knew I could no longer survive there. Now, my husband of 56 years and I are among the 2,700 Jews who have left our homes and are receiving help from Federation’s overseas partner, the American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee (JDC). Thanks to JDC’s Hesed social welfare center network, my husband and I have been able to move to a safer place, have our basic needs met and supplement our limited resources with many essentials. ”

Our Impact { JEWISH EDUCATION }

The Need:

Providing accessible and affordable Jewish education to build and strengthen the Jewish community.

$2,000,000+

was invested by Federation in our community's Jewish education system, creating inspiring learning opportunities for adults, teens and children.

2,653

children attended one of six Federation-supported Jewish day schools that provide educational excellence and give children a substantive Jewish identity built on a strong foundation of Jewish learning and values.

800+

adults participate in the yearly ROUTES program, which offers 70 unique sessions during the community-wide day of Jewish learning.

500+

students participated in unique field trips that explored the rich history of Greater Washington's Jewish community.

$53,000+

provided 32 area congregational schools with funding to support religious school activities as a catalyst for transforming educational programs.

Julia B.

JEWISH DAY SCHOOL

“ One of the greatest gifts I received from my day school education was the ability to weave together different parts of my identity to form a stronger me. I received a high-quality education in math, science and history, and I also became well-versed in Torah, developed a greater commitment for communal responsibility and learned how to apply the principles and practices of my religion to everyday life. The integration of Judaic and general studies at Berman Hebrew Academy prepared me to become an educated, informed and caring citizen of our community, our nation and of the world. ”

Our Impact

EMERGENCY RESPONSE

The Need:

Responding swiftly to address the immediate needs of individuals and communities in crisis by delivering support, respite and relief.

6,900+

people living in Ukraine's conflict zone received life-sustaining services, including rental subsidies, food, clothing and post-trauma counseling.

60

Jewish schools in France will join an Emergency Alert Information network, linking them to France's central Jewish security agency.

The Jewish Federation of Greater Washington is proud to partner with Jewish communities across the country to provide immediate support to those facing unexpected crises.

Sam, senior member, JDC disaster response team

Sam A.

NEPAL

“ Following the disastrous earthquake in Nepal, our team quickly arrived on the scene to address the widespread devastation. American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee (JDC) relief workers manually carried goods over narrow suspended bridges straddling deep gorges to reach those living in remote villages. Delivering needed goods to survivors in a crisis is often critical to their survival; it was a mitzvah, a good deed, benefiting the victims of this unprecedented tragedy. ”

15,000

Israelis in need of immediate psychological assistance during two months of rocket attacks received trauma support through the Israel Emergency Campaign.

20,000+

pounds of medical and shelter supplies were distributed to local hospitals, humanitarian groups and those in remote villages, providing life-saving support to those affected by the earthquake in Nepal.

Our Impact { INCLUSIVE COMMUNITY }

The Need:

Building a welcoming and inclusive community for all by growing the ways in which individuals are invited and encouraged to participate in Jewish life.

Shane C. GLOE

“Moving to a new city in search of a place to feel welcome and accepted as both a Jew and a gay person can be difficult. Over the years, GLOE, the Kurlander Program for GLBT Outreach & Engagement, enabled me to fully live out both parts of my identity by continually building a community that I can identify with and in which I can fully express myself as a gay Jew.”

7,000

people from Greater Washington's LGBTQ Jewish community joined together at programs and events that fostered a welcoming and inclusive community.

2,250

individuals with special needs and their families received services and support.

106

adults with disabilities live in 23 group homes throughout MD, DC and VA.

26,000+

interfaith families have the opportunity to connect with Jewish life through Federation's partnership with InterfaithFamily/DC.

David M. CAMP PARENT

“ The JCC of Greater Washington Inclusion Camp offers our family a welcoming and inclusive place in the Jewish community where our son Jason, who has autism, is comfortable being himself. At camp, he feels wanted, successful, smart and appreciated. His enhanced confidence and self-esteem have resulted in greater success in school and improved his ability to form and maintain relationships with others, who can now clearly see all of his incredible qualities. ”

Our Impact

The Need:

Increasing opportunities for meaningful connections to Jewish life to offer members of our community a multitude of ways to embark on their Jewish journey.

10,540

Jewish campers attend Federation-supported Jewish camps in our local community and at 140 Jewish camps across the former Soviet Union.

4,700

families strengthened their connections to Jewish values through educational, creative and meaningful programming for parents and children in our community.

19,000

Jewish students on 11 campuses throughout Greater Washington were afforded robust programs and activities that connected them to Jewish life.

4,500

teens strengthened their Jewish identities through their participation in seven Federation-supported youth groups.

Jason G. BIRTHRIGHT ISRAEL

“ While studying for my conversion to Judaism, I’d always wondered about the Jewish people’s connection to Israel. When Federation gave me the gift of my Birthright Israel trip, I was able to see what Israel offers to Jewish people, not only there, but around the world. The 10 days I spent in Israel were an amazing experience for me. Our diverse group had the chance to laugh, cry, scream, sing, eat, drink, talk and debate about each and every experience we encountered. ”

Our Impact { ENDOWMENT }

This year, Federation's United Jewish Endowment Fund grew its assets under management to $195 million. The UJEF trustees were proudly able to distribute $2.5 million in special grants to support innovative programming that made measurable impact for generations of Jews in our community and in Israel.

Jocelyn K.

MATCHING GRANTS PROGRAM

“ Turning dreams into reality; that's what the United Jewish Endowment Fund (UJEF) Matching Grants program makes possible. We were approached by a number of generous donors looking to support innovative, creative projects throughout the community, including Café Sunflower & Bakery. This exciting project provides employment opportunities and training for adults with disabilities. Thanks to the donor and UJEF's match, Café Sunflower has opened a storefront in Federation's headquarters, giving Café employees first-hand experiences in customer service, management, marketing and more. ”

Mark L.

MULTI-GENERATIONAL FAMILY PHILANTHROPY

“ Through Federation’s multi-generational family philanthropy consulting, families in our community have been given the gift of learning more about Jewish philanthropy, having meaningful conversations about involvement and giving and developing their own philanthropic identities. I’m thrilled we can offer this customized service and help guide conversations to ensure our community has philanthropists prepared to make decisions that can have a meaningful impact in Greater Washington for years to come. ”

100s

of young Jews in the Greater Washington area were engaged through a peer-led fellowship focused on relationship building.

470

Ethiopian-Israeli preschoolers and their families received key support at home and at school, helping to reduce educational and social gaps.

8,947

people have connected to the local Jewish community through Jewish Food Experience® programs.

10

communities have been created across Israel where core groups of young local leaders provide a community-based response to local interests and needs, including arts awareness and encouraging social entrepreneurship.

Donor Advised Funds (DAF)

Doing good should be easy, and UJEF boasts a user-friendly and efficient DAF program. You can make a tax-deductible gift to UJEF, have these funds deposited in an account that you name and make distributions from the fund to 501(c)(3) organizations that matter to you.

Create a Jewish Legacy Program for community agencies & synagogues

This effort allows Jewish agencies and synagogues in our community to participate in a training program that helps them build permanent endowments and create a culture of giving that permeates Greater Washington.

Allied Professionals

Attorneys, accountants, financial advisors and insurance professionals enjoy privileged relationships with clients, helping them to attain their lifelong goals. UJEF is investing in the philanthropic sector and our community by equipping professionals in these fields with knowledge of our community and the varied charitable opportunities open to their clients. A networking group for young professionals has led to amazing exchanges on philanthropy, financial planning and estate planning.

Leave a Legacy

Many within our community have chosen to include Jewish causes in their legacy plans. There are a variety of ways to ensure the continued support of organizations that matter to you. Below are some of the more popular techniques for creating a legacy.

- BEQUESTS: By editing or adding to your will, you can leave a specified amount or percentage of your estate to fuel the Jewish future.
- INSURANCE: Naming a charity as a beneficiary of a life insurance policy can provide you with an easy way to make a significant gift to your community. Under certain circumstances, your premiums may be tax deductible and Federation may advance half of the premium costs. Contact us to learn about our Key Donor Life Insurance Program.
- CHARITABLE GIFT ANNUITIES (CGA): Receive income for life, create a legacy at UJEF and receive a tax deduction through our CGA program.
- IRA DESIGNATION: Naming charities you care about as beneficiaries of your residual IRA can be a tax-efficient way to make a philanthropic impact.

Perpetual Annual Campaign Endowment/ Lion of Judah Endowment (PACE/LOJE)

During your lifetime, your Annual Campaign contribution changes many lives. Help ensure that we will be able to continue to address our community's most pressing needs long into the future. A PACE or LOJE Endowment can be funded in a variety of ways, including those listed to the left, and will render you a donor to the work of Federation in perpetuity.

Highly Trained Philanthropic Advisors

Consult with our team to receive philanthropic advice, expert guidance on Jewish organizations, multi-generational family giving plans and highly professional support as you strive to make a charitable impact.

Matching Grants Program

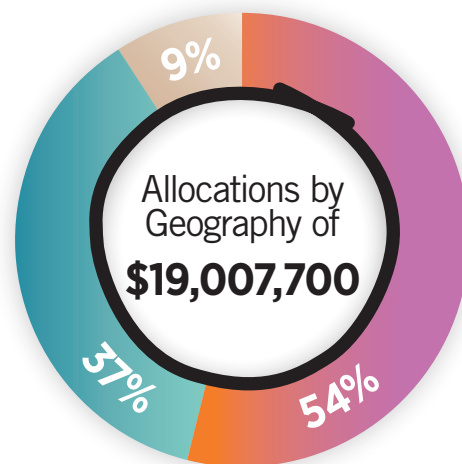

Generous donors considering a philanthropic investment in innovative and entrepreneurial ventures can double the impact of their gift through a partnership with UJEF.

{ Thank You }

The Jewish Federation of Greater Washington thanks our dedicated volunteers, committed leaders, generous donors and corporate sponsors who touch, change and save lives each and every day.

Your support cares for those in need, builds a stronger, more vibrant Jewish community and ensures our connection to the people of Israel and Jews around the world. On behalf of our agencies and the members of our community whose lives you have touched, thank you.
